The American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons – the not-for-profit professional Association representing more than 11,000 OMSs, OMS residents and professional allied staff throughout the United States – has served the professional and public needs of the specialty since 1918.

In pursuit of its mission to promote, protect and advance excellence in oral and maxillofacial surgery, AAOMS partners with like-minded companies who share its vision of a technologically advanced specialty that provides safe and effective patient care.

AAOMS educational programs offer unsurpassed value for those organizations that market their products and services to the oral and maxillofacial surgery community.

Support opportunities provide:

- Unparalleled access to your customer base.
- Established name recognition.
- Year-round options that heighten the profile of your company and its representatives long after the meeting has ended and the exhibition has closed.
- Targeted support – choose the offerings that best suit your needs.
- Opportunities to earn double Priority Points and take advantage of earlier and more prominent booth placement.

Lunch and Learn
Up to two exhibitors are each given the opportunity to demonstrate their products to an attentive audience of up to 150 attendees. Only one Lunch and Learn presentation will be scheduled on each of the first two days of the three-day exhibition. (Lunch and Learns are not for CME credit.) For more information, visit AAOMS.org/Exhibits. Double Priority Points are awarded.

Visit AAOMS.org/CorporateSupport
Priority Points are awarded to exhibiting companies that support AAOMS, AAOMS Advantage (a new branding strategy of AAOMS Services, Inc.), the OMS Foundation and the Resident Organization of AAOMS (ROAAOMS) through corporate contributions, support opportunities and royalties, among other activities. Priority Points determine the order in which booths are assigned for AAOMS exhibitions – the higher the number of points, the better the booth placement.

For details on activities that earn Priority Points and how points are accrued, visit AAOMS.org/CorporateSupport.

Securing AAOMS Support Opportunities
Securing your support opportunity couldn’t be easier:
1. Review the opportunities and select the ones that best suit your marketing objectives.
2. Take action now to secure your first priority.

We look forward to a successful partnership!

In-kind Donations

If you are interested in providing in-kind donations to AAOMS, please email inquiries@aaoms.org. AAOMS will contact you on an as-needed basis. Priority Points will be awarded for in-kind donations.

Guidelines for Support Opportunities

1. Supporters may not distribute any product-related material before, during or after any of the events supported, or in the pathway to or from the event (i.e., handouts, samples or any other items) that would lead attendees to believe the company is directly involved with the content of the program it has supported.

2. Speaker lists for the AAOMS Annual Meeting and Dental Implant Conference educational programs will be available for review at AAOMS.org.

3. AAOMS is recognized by the American Dental Association Continuing Education Recognition Program (ADA CERP) as a provider of continuing dental education and accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education. AAOMS complies with all commercial support guidelines as detailed in the ADA CERP Recognition Standards and Procedures and the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support.
